2012 Spring Conference - Ann Arbor

From Ralph C. Salmerón

Ann Arbor is excited to be hosting next year's Central States Regional Conference. The dates have been set, June 14 - 16, 2011 and the beautiful Sheraton Ann Arbor Hotel has been selected as the conference site. As you may know there is only one regional conference next year, so we're planning on making it a "Don't Miss!" event with three strong tracks, including a Production Track for the community producers, a great 4 star hotel with free Wi-Fi, free parking, free around town shuttle service, an indoor/outdoor pool and Jacuzzi, 24-hour fitness center, and it's located within blocks of CTN's offices and studios.

For Friday evening's social event there's the Ann Arbor Summer Festival/Top of the Park Opening Night-First Friday celebration. Back to back performances from top flight local and regional musicians, a rock climbing wall, face painting, DJ dancing into the night, plus a food court and beer garden on the campus of the University of Michigan, and best of all, it's free, except of course for the food & beer. For a glimpse of what you can expect take a look at last year's Opening Night at http://www.annarborsummerfestival.org/index.php/events/top\_of\_the\_park/first\_friday/

It's also Father's Day weekend, so bring the whole family! There's something for everyone, the Ann Arbor Hands-On Museum, the University of Michigan Art Museum, and Natural History Museum (i.e. dinosaurs), the Main Street and State Street areas for unique shopping, dining, gallery, and entertainment experiences. If you are a NASCAR family, there's the Michigan 500 at the Michigan International speedway on Sunday. Make the Central States Alliance for Community Media Conference a great family getaway! Heck, stay the whole weekend if you want to.

The guaranteed hotel conference room rate of $95.00 will be honored until May 13, 2012, so watch your mail for hotel room reservation details including the conference discount code.

See you in Ann Arbor for 2012!
